

Exam 2 Study Guide – SOC 201 Sprg, 2013 - Burnell
Also, study the list of definitions called Vocabulary #2.

- 1) What are the five major social institutions and their functions for society?
- 2) What is an example of an ascribed status?
- 3) What is an example of an achieved status?
- 4) What is the range of hostility that the in-group may have towards the out-group?
- 5) What is an example of a master status?
- 6) How do roles relate to statuses?
- 7) How do statuses relate to the social structure?
- 8) Why are groups important to us as people?
- 9) What kind of work do people do in pre-industrial societies?
- 10) What kind of work do people do in industrial society?
- 11) What kind of work do people do in postindustrial society?
- 12) What are examples of primary groups?
- 13) What are examples of secondary groups?
- 14) Briefly describe the Asch and Milgram experiments.
- 15) Why do we want to prevent groupthink, and what example was used in class?
- 16) What kinds of roles did the example of the “good student” have?